

Invitation to Book Launch

The Eureka Sydney Committee invites you to celebrate the 151st Anniversary of the Eureka Stockade with the launch of a new book by R.D. (Bob) Walshe.

"The Great Australian Goldrush and Eureka Stockade"

Friday, 2nd December, 2005
Gleebooks, 49 Glebe Point Road, Glebe
6.30pm for 7.00pm

Bob Walshe will be presented by Rodney Cavalier, and the Sydney Trade Union Choir will sing.

Bob Walshe says that the Eureka Stockade was the finest hour of the goldrush decade. He challenges people who think they know the Eureka story to think again.

Above is the announcement of the 1954 celebration. At that time historian Bob Walshe wrote popular and academic articles about the Eureka Stockade.

He helped to organise the Sydney celebrations of the centenary of the Stockade in 1954 and then 50 years later did it all again.

Bob is an active environmentalist and is Patron of the Total Environment Centre.

Rodney Cavalier is Chairman of the NSW Government's committee for the celebration of the sesquicentenary of responsible government. He has been a member of the ALP for 37 years and was Minister for Education.
